Additional Information pertaining to this Service:

Attempted service on 7/24 @ 11:50 am, 2180 West State Road 434, Suite 6184, Longwood, FL 32779. I walked into the office and at the front desk was the employees cards on the desk, so i picked up a card with David Carter's name on it and said hello and no one answered, so i walked down the hall and found a man at his desk. The only person there to speak with at the time was a guy named Scott and he stated he was a Bookkeeper Consultant and wasnt an employee of Red Lambda. I asked when David Carter would be back he was the Registered Agent. Scott replied that David was in Alabama and wasnt sure when he would be back. He said he called and left a message for David to contact me, since i left my card with Scott. I spoke with David Carter on the phone and he stated it would be two weeks before he returned back to Longwood. I explained to him that someone from the company should be there to accept on his behalf since he wasnt there. He stated he would get in touch with the receptionist since he had no idea when his partner would return back to the office, he was also traveling. I then left and contacted the attorney with the information and the attorney stated her paralegal said the receptionist had returned. I went back to the suite and the receptionist was there and also another process server. The other process server stated the florida statue to a female named Amy, and she refused to give us her last name and stated she wasnt signing for anything and she was informed she didnt have to sign that she was an employee even though she was part time and we had to serve her since RA wasnt there for service. The documents was left at her feet advising her she was served.
